Someone really does not want me to do this....I can't explain what I have been through JUST trying to get my words down! I was fine a minute ago and now I'm shaking and cold, not a normal cold but a shivering cold, and it's like 70 degrees in here???? Doesn't make sense. I did make one prior attempt at this and it got wiped out before I got a chance to save it so I will learn from my mistakes. (I hope).
